I. What can we learn from the Tabernacle?

A. God _____ to man and made a way for man to _____ to _____!

Exodus 25:1-2 – God always _____ fellowship with man.

B. Exodus 25:8 – Although He has all the _____ of _____, God wants a _____ among us. This is most vividly demonstrated in the _____.

John 1:14

C. Before the people of Israel could approach God, they had to bring an _____—but why? Because sin always demands a _____. Leviticus 9:7; 16:3

D. But didn't Jesus do away with the _____ _____? Consider Hebrews 9:11-15, 22

E. What about _____? Maybe the idea of _____ should not be forgotten by believers today.

II. What can we learn from the Psalms?

A. Psalm 132:7 – One of the main reasons we should come to God's house is to _____.

B. Psalm 5:7 – We can approach God because of His
_____.

C. Psalm 22:22 – Part of our worship for the Lord with _____ _____ also includes _____!

D. Psalm 150 – We are to _____ God for _____
_____, _____, and _____
_____.

We are instructed to praise the Lord 100's of times in the Psalms!

This praise includes thanksgiving, remembrance, singing, exaltation, playing instruments, and so on.
